

COMMITMENT: Briar Stewart receives her award from Rear Admiral David Ledson.

Courage and commitment

Porirua sea cadet Briar Stewart has been awarded the Chief of Navy Sea Cadet Scholarship, $3000 to go towards her computer sciences studies at Victoria University.

Briar is the Chief Petty Officer of the T.S. Taupo Sea Cadets at Mana. She received the award recently from Chief of Navy Rear Admiral David Ledson.

The scholarship is awarded annually to a selected sea cadet after nominations and an extensive interview. Briar was selected for her commitment to the organisation and demonstration of qualities consistent with the Navy's core values; comradeship, courage and commitment.

Briar has been involved with sea cadets at Mana for five years.
